

Letter From the Editor

Dear readers, colleagues!

You have received the fourth issue of the Russian Electronic Journal of Radiology in 2022 (REJR, Volume 12, No. 4, 2022).

According to our tradition, in this issue we present materials devoted to the most relevant and diverse topics in radiology. Our authors are the leading scientists, well-known experts and clinical doctors who are sharing their experience and latest scientific and clinical developments.

I am sure that readers will appreciate 8 original articles, 2 scientific reviews, 6 clinical cases, including 3 articles on diagnostics of COVID-19 complications.

As always, we expect your feedback – reviews, questions and suggestions on the work of our journal.

I congratulate you on the upcoming New Year! I wish you all health, prosperity and creative success!

Sincerely,
Chief Editor
Sergey Ternovoy.
